I had a gal with a mutton - chop-mouth, And a voice that would raise the Now gals and boys, we all must go And have a glo - rious When coon and pos - som was pul - ver - ized We cleared the place to roof; She was the hom - li - est wench in the south, And she nev - er owned a time; We'll cel - e - brate on the ole ban - jo The day ole Sue did dance; An ole tom - cat got de - mor - al - ized To see those dark - ies tooth. O she went up in a big bal - loon, Done float - ed in the climb. We had boiled on - i - ons, sweet rac - coon, And pos - som crisp and prance. Dey danced so hard and danced so fast, Their bun - ions soon got sky; I spec's the an - gels grabbed that gal, But I'll meet her by and by. O fat; The mu - sic played dis bu - ful tune, As to our feast we sat. 'Twas sore; Such glo - ri-ous scenes wer'n't in dey past Till Su-san left de door. O

Chorus.

My ole gal done flew, She's left dis world be-hind; It don't seem real - ly true. Its eased my troub-led mind, Such hap - pi-ness and joy ; O darkies, how-dy do, I feel as live - ly as a boy, Since my ole gal done flew.

Dance.
